

David Millar

Former Pro Cyclist & Member of the UCI World Tour Pro Cycling Peloton

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

David is a former member of the UCI World Tour pro cycling peloton and one of only two British cyclists to have worn the leaders jersey in all three Grand Tours. He is also a former Olympic team captain, an author, media commentator, film maker, coach, creative designer and an entrepreneur. He is articulate, whilst his offbeat sense of humour has won him over 150,000 followers on twitter. Since David's retirement from cycling, he has a commentator for British TV and coach for the GB cycling team. He is the founder of the brand CHPT3 - a creative lab for the cycling industry.

What he offers you

Using his career as a backdrop David delivers inspiring content, with key take away messages tailored to the objectives of the event. He draws on his experiences both as a cyclist, Team Leader, Co-owner and Creative business leader with a wide portfolio of interests.

How he presents

David is known for being a Stylish highly articulate presenter, who is candid about his career and experiences. His presentations are supported by professional video and strong images from throughout his career.
