

Manu Bhaskaran

Director of Centennial Group; Chief Executive, Centennial Asia Advisors

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Manu Bhaskaran has spent nearly 30 years analyzing political and economic trends in Asia, first working for the Singapore government in the area of regional security and for 12 years as Chief Economist and Chief Strategist for Asia of SG Investment Bank, the international investment banking arm of Société Générale.

"An expert on Asian politics, economics and country risks"

In detail

Manu Bhaskaran has a Masters degree in Public Administration from the John F Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University and a Bachelors degree in economics from Cambridge University. He has penned columns for the Far Eastern Economic Review and continues to have regular columns in business weeklies such as the Nikkei in Japan. He is also an Adjunct Senior Fellow with the Institute of Policy Studies, a Singapore government think tank and actively contributes to policy discussions in Singapore and around the region. He is a Council Member of the Singapore Institute of International Affairs and Vice-President of the Economic Society of Singapore.

What he offers you

Manu is ideally positioned to provide unique, on-the-ground assessments of the Asian macroeconomic environment for business executives trying to weigh-up the risks and rewards of investing across different countries in Asia. His strength is in being able to look at countries from an overall perspective, rather than looking at them as individual economies.

How he presents

Manu's insights are fantastic having spoken at various multinational corporations and investment institutions.
