

Mark Foster

Eight-Time World Record Holder, Esteemed TV Personality

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Mark Foster is one of Britain's most decorated male swimmers. He represented his country for 23 years. Throughout his remarkable career, he won 51 major international medals, competed in 5 Olympics, was 6 times World Champion, and broke the World record 8 times. He is now a media personality and a regular tv presenter.

"One of the UK's most successful competitive swimmers"

In detail

Since retiring from competitive swimming in 2008, Mark has become a familiar face on television, gaining prominence as a regular presence on BBC 1's 'Strictly Come Dancing'. He also served as a BBC pundit during the London Olympics in 2012 and formed a successful partnership with Claire Balding. Mark's journey continued as he ventured into the realm of dance and fitness, co-launching the FitSteps™ program alongside dance professionals Natalie Lowe and Ian Waite, following his stint on Strictly Come Dancing. Moreover, he dedicates himself to mentoring and training aspiring competitive swimmers through the Mark Foster Swimming Academy, ensuring a legacy in the sport he loves.
