

Peter Hillary

Legendary Adventurer

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Peter Hillary's life is a testament to setting goals and achieving them. His skill, driving ambition, and good judgement have enabled him to summit mountains and survive ferocious storms and avalanches. Like his father, Sir Edmund Hillary, who made the first ascent of Mt. Everest in 1953, Peter has twice reached the summit of Everest, travelled to the ends of the earth at the North and South Poles, survived a horrific storm on 'the savage mountain' K2 and forged a new route across Antarctica.

"To pursue your own goals is great, but it is even greater to help others reach theirs."

In detail

Peter has made numerous media appearances including being a guest on The Late Show with David Letterman, Good Morning America and The Charlie Rose Show in New York, plus numerous major radio programs and print media such as The New York Times, The Times (UK), Parade Magazine and The Sydney Morning Herald. He links his own challenges to the achievement of goals for any individual, and focuses on the importance of preparation, perseverance, teamwork, caution and good judgement - as well as enjoying the journey.

What he offers you

Peter Hillary is a communicator, a storyteller and a skilled assessor of what works and what doesn't in critical situations. With a history of world class achievements in climbing, he is an inspiring adventurer from one of the great families of mountaineering. He is a dynamic and easy speaker, with a dry wit and a flair for storytelling, having spoken to audiences ranging from 12 to 12,000.

How he presents

In these enthralling presentations, Peter enjoys captivating audiences with authentic, spine-tingling and at times hilarious stories about his adventures that transport audiences to another world. All the presentations include dramatic video footage.
