

Prof. Robert A. Mundell
Nobel Laureate in Economics (1999)

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Robert Mundell has been Professor of Economics at Columbia University, New York since 1974. A highly awarded international economist he received the Nobel Prize in Economics in 1999 for his analysis of monetary and fiscal policy under different exchange rate systems and his analysis of optimum currency areas. His insights into the international monetary system, currency issues and the world economy at large, provide a subtle foundation for strategic decision makers in the financial world.

"Thought leader and the father of the theory of optimum currency areas."

In detail

Before receiving the Nobel Prize in Economics in 1999, Robert Mundell received a Guggenheim Prize in 1971, the Jacques Rueff Medal and Prize in 1983, the Docteur Honoris Causa from the University of Paris in 1992, an Honorary Professorship at Renmin University in China in 1995 and the Distinguished Fellow Award from the American Economic Association in 1997. In 2006 he was made Doctor Honoris Causa in the Political Economy of Markets at the University of Bologna.

What he offers you

Robert has been adviser to a number of international agencies and organisations, including the UN, the IMF, the World Bank, The European Commission and several governments in Latin America and Europe, the Federal Reserve Board, the US Treasury and the Government of Canada.

How he presents

Professor Mundell brings his experience and analytical prowess to bear on the conventional economic wisdom, reaching insightful conclusions others simply can't.

Topics

The Euro, the Dollar and the Future of the International Monetary System
A Reconsideration of the 21st Century
Monetary and Fiscal Policies
Economic Growth Prospects
The Theory of Inflation and Interest and Growth
World Economic Growth Prospects
The Evolution of the International Monetary System and Its Relationship with China

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Publications

2000

The Euro as a Stabilizer in the International Monetary System

1996

Inflation and Growth in China

1992

Building the New Europe

1991

Debts, Deficits and Economic Performance

1990

Global Disequilibrium

1983

Monetary Theory: Interest, Inflation and Growth in the World Economy