

Sheila Sri Prakash

Award Winning International Architect

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Sheila Sri Prakash is an award winning Architect and Designer who founded Shilpa Architects in 1979. She is internationally acclaimed for her trendsetting indo-centric designs, thought-leading contributions to environmentally friendly design and is also known as a champion for the developing world through socio-economically sensitive planning. Sheila has been named to the "Top 100" most influential architects in the world, by the prestigious Italian Journal of Architecture, Il Giornale dell' Architettura.

"A world-renowned architect and thought leading expert"

In detail

Sheila Sri Prakash was the only Indian architect invited to serve on the World Economic Forum's Global Agenda Council on Design Innovation to formulate ways that improve the state of the world. She is credited to be a pioneer among leading contemporary architects, for combining the principles of Bharatanatyam, classical Indian music, sculpture and architecture in award winning projects. Her international works can be seen in Detroit, Shanghai, Tokyo, Accra, Brussels and in Singapore, along with the Mahindra World City in Chennai. She was a key charter member who was instrumental in establishing the Indian Green Building Council (IGBC).
