

Vijay Amritraj

Former Tennis Champion & Sports Commentator

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Vijay Amritraj was for over two decades one of the most illustrious tennis players in India. He is known today for his exceptional sports commentary and for developing a successful multimedia business. In 2006 Vijay founded the Vijay Amritraj Foundation, which helps those who are most in need in India.

"Tennis gave me my greatest education"

In detail

Vijay played at Wimbledon for 17 years and led India several times to the Davis Cup Finals. To nurture and develop young talent in tennis, he founded the Britannia Amritraj Tennis Academy in Chennai. He has been five-time President of the ATP Tour Players Council. Vijay is the only Indian to have received the Baron Pierre de Coubertin Award. He is also the recipient of the Padmashri Award from the Government of India and the Key to the City of Los Angeles. Vijay is also a leading tennis commentator for Fox Sports in the US and Star Sports in Asia. His multimedia company First Serve Entertainment has helped Disney, Turner and ESPN enter the Indian Market. Vijay has been a committed advocate to people in need and was appointed UN Messenger of Peace in 2001.
