"Europe offers a Window of Opportunity"

In detail

Before becoming chancellor, Dr Schüssel had served as economics minister, foreign minister and vice chancellor in several governments. In 1995, he was elected chairman of the Austrian People's Party which under his leadership overcame its internal divisions. At the federal elections in 2002, it obtained its best result in nearly four decades, becoming the strongest group in the Nationalrat, the Austrian federal parliament. After serving as Chancellor, Dr Schüssel continued to be a member of the Nationalrat for another four years until he left the parliament in 2011. He is a Member of the Supervisory Board of RWE AG since 2010 and MTS PJSC Member of Board of Directors since 2018.
